

Save Water. Save Money.

Replacing standard toilets (3 - 7 gallons per flush) with newer efficiency models (less than 1.6 gallons per flush) can reduce water usage by approximately 20 percent.

The EPA estimates the average household can save approximately 2,700 gallons of water each year by replacing just one showerhead with a water-saving model.

Follow AlexRenew on social media

